

Student:		Score:
Code quality (40%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score:
<input type="checkbox"/> Does the code work? (Also on other computers?) <input type="checkbox"/> Is the code clear and understandable? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the code easy to use? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the code modular? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the code easily extensible? <input type="checkbox"/> How scalable is the solution? <input type="checkbox"/> Does the code follow the guidelines? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the repository well-organized?
Content & features (30%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score
<input type="checkbox"/> Are the project requirements met? <input type="checkbox"/> Are the results stored in a reasonable format? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the overall approach valid and appropriate? <input type="checkbox"/> How advanced is the level of text processing? <input type="checkbox"/> Did the student go above & beyond the basic requirements? <input type="checkbox"/> Are there any original features?
Visualizations (20%)	Comments:	Score:
<input type="checkbox"/> Do the visualizations serve a purpose? (What do they tell us?) <input type="checkbox"/> Are these the right visualizations for the task? <input type="checkbox"/> Are they clear and understandable? <input type="checkbox"/> Is there any variation in the visualizations?
Documentation (10%, requires score > 5.5)	Comments:	Score:
<input type="checkbox"/> Is the code well-documented? In other words: <input type="checkbox"/> Does every function have a docstring? <input type="checkbox"/> Does the code do what the documentation says? <input type="checkbox"/> Is the code understandable, given the docs? <input type="checkbox"/> Is there a README, detailing how to use the code? <input type="checkbox"/> If there is data, is the source of the data credited?		